

PRODUCT WARRANTY FOR NOVA C SERIES

Green Furniture Concept offers a manufacturer's warranty on the products from its Nova C Series for a period of thirty (30) years from date departure from the Green's warehouse.

The warranty protects against defects in material and workmanship when the products are properly installed, maintained (controlled and cared for at least once a year), used for their intended purposes, and kept for indoor use only.

Upon receipt of written notice of the defect during the applicable warranty period, Green will decide to either repair or replace the defect component free of charge. During the first year of this period, the units shall be repaired in the field at Green's expense. After the first year, replacement components will be provided for original components found faulty at Green's expense however installation will be at the client's expense.

With normal use, Green's products are built to last for several years provided that maintenance recommendations are followed. Damage resulting from misuse, abuse, negligence or accidents are not covered by the manufacturer's warranty. While serviceability will be maintained, Green cannot prevent normal wear and tear, colour and texture changes, or natural variations in wood, leather, stone etc.

Warranty for electronic and electrical components:

Electronic and electrical components are not covered by this warranty.

Electronic and electrical components, when professionally installed by an authorized electrical contractor, we guarantee for one (1) year from delivery against defects in material and workmanship.

Green should not be held liable for consequential, financial or incidental damages arising from any product or defect.
